WRITTEN OPINION OF THE
INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.
PCT/DE2004/001668

Box No. I	Basis of this opinion
1.	With regard to the language, this opinion has been established on the basis of the international application in the language in which it was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item. <input type="checkbox"/> This opinion has been established on the basis of a translation from the original language into the following language _____, which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rule 12.3 and 23.1(b)).
2.	With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of: a. type of material <input type="checkbox"/> a sequence listing <input type="checkbox"/> table(s) related to the sequence listing b. format of material <input type="checkbox"/> in written format <input type="checkbox"/> in computer readable form c. time of filing/furnishing <input type="checkbox"/> contained in the international application as filed. <input type="checkbox"/> filed together with the international application in computer readable form. <input type="checkbox"/> furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.
3.	<input type="checkbox"/> In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table(s) relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statements that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or does not go beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.

Box No. II Priority

1. The following document has not yet been furnished:
 copy of the earlier application whose priority has been claimed (Rule 43bis.1 and 66.7(a)).
 translation of the earlier application whose priority has been claimed (Rule 43bis.1 and 66.7(b)).
Consequently it has not been possible to consider the validity of the priority claim. This opinion has nevertheless been established on the assumption that the relevant date is the claimed priority date.
2. This opinion has been established as if no priority had been claimed due to the fact that the priority claim has been found invalid. (Rules 43bis.1 and 64.1). Thus for the purposes of this opinion, the international filing date indicated above is considered to be the relevant date.
3. Additional observations, if necessary:

1. Reference is made to the following document:

D1: CA-A-2 353 350 (WILSON ALLAN; PETERSEN MICHAEL (CA)) 20 January 2003 (2003-01-20)

2. The present application does not meet the requirements of PCT Article 33(1), because the subject matter of the independent claim 1 is not novel within the meaning of PCT Article 33(2).

Document D1 discloses (the references between parentheses refer to this document):

A device for the storage of solid and/or liquid and/or gaseous objects, in particular of medicaments or foodstuffs (claim 1, figure 3), comprising at least one compartment (figure 3 reference 106 and figure 5) which contains at least one object (figure 5 reference 130), with the filling and/or emptying of the compartment being triggered by means of an electrically readable signal (claim 1).

3. The dependent claims 2-6, 11-17, 19-25 also do not contain any features which, in combination with the features of any claim to which they refer, meet the PCT requirements for novelty; see document D1 and the appropriate parts of the text specified in the search report.

4. The dependent claims 7-10, 18 do not contain any features which, in combination with the features of any claim to which they refer, meet the PCT requirements for inventive step, since these features concern only minor structural modifications of the device of the kind that a person skilled in the art routinely makes on the basis of familiar considerations, especially since the resulting advantages are readily foreseeable.
